

Kauten-Foster

FAYETTE — Aimee Frances Kauten and John Allen Foster, both of Cedar Rapids, were united in marriage Oct. 30, 2004, in Fayette. The bride is the daughter of Francis and Mary Kauten of Fayette. The bridegroom's parents are Lonnie and Deb Foster of Coggon.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was officiated by the Rev. John Purtell at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church. A dinner and dance followed at the Oelwein Community Plaza.

Matron of honor was Susie Schaul. Bridesmaids were Meg McDonald, Kelly Cooksley, Carolin Kauten and Renee Foster. Miniature bride was Madison Schaul. Flower girl was Adrianna Whitley. Personal attendants were Amber Umble and Bridget O'Malley.

Best man was Tom Schaul. Groomsmen were Ted Hess, Cliff Schanbeck, Jimmy Pinckney and Jason Foye. Ushers were Jim Johnson, Christopher Kauten and Jeremy Schmitt. Hosts and hostesses were Chuck and Kay McDonald, Mary Kay Pinckney and Bill and Joann Kauten.

Aimee received a B.S. degree in nursing from Mount Mercy College. She is employed full-time as a registered nurse at St. Luke's Hospital and part-time at Mercy Medical Center. John received a B.S. degree in biology from Mount Mercy College. He is an environmental technician at Cedar Rapids/Linn County Solid Waste Agency.

The couple honeymooned in Australia. They reside in Cedar Rapids.

"The couple would like to thank their families and friends who helped make their wedding day so very special."